

13 Fashion styles children should know

This fun and informative book on major fashion styles from the early 20th century to today is the perfect accessory for budding fashion enthusiasts everywhere. Many of today's top designers can trace their obsession with fashion to their early years—but they didn't have a book like this to help and inspire them.

Through Georgia's eyes

A biography of one of America's most beloved artists. Georgia O'Keeffe saw the world differently from most people. As a child she roamed the prairie with a sketch pad in her hand, struggling to capture on paper what she saw all around her. At art school she learned to speak in paint on canvas.

Design and Engineering Buildings

This book will tell you all about how scientists, mathematicians and designers work together to engineer different structures. Engineering is a career that some people go into if they enjoy problem solving and looking at exactly how machinery and mechanisms work.

Street Art

This book contains images of different types of street art from about the world. It explains how artists work and how they paint on the buildings. You might have heard of a famous street artist called 'Banksy'

Art life

This is a completely original way to unleash your creativity, with an engaging structure based around four distinct categories for exploring ideas - line, book, traces, and marks.

Handmade Gift Cards

A step-by-step guide on how to work with card in both 2D and 3D. This book can help you create cards but the skills involved can help you with other aspects of modelling. This book will tell you about different materials suitable for making cards.

The World's Most Amazing Buildings

This book will tell you all about how famous buildings from around the world were built. Lots of buildings that are well-known from around the world are based on different shapes and have different designs.

Children's Cook Book

Can you cook? Why don't you have a go at following some of the recipes from this book. There are recipes from all around the world using lots of different ingredients.

